DESCRIPTION

A rare find, the pine Sandoz stool, a creation of Charlotte Perriand boasting a thick round seat and distinctive tripod legs.

Originally crafted around 1955 by Charlotte Perriand, it found its place in Perriand's personal chalet in Meribel. Later in 1962, she adapted the model for use by the Swiss pharmaceutical company, Sandoz Laboratories, thus the name.

Discovered during a chalet clearance in the French Alps, this stool embodies Perriand's timeless design. Despite its age, it remains structurally sound, showing a beautiful natural aged patina.

Manufacturer : Steph Simon from 1965.
