DESCRIPTION

Murano blown glass chandelier Gaia by Ernesto Gismondi, also known by his pseudonym Orni Halloween during collaborations with VeArt in the 1980s.

Full red edition, featuring sinuous colored glass arms surrounding a sculptural central body, characteristic of VeArt's expressive Venetian work.

The glass shows a uniform shine and vibrant color, typical of late twentieth century VeArt production. The chandelier retains its original label and is in full working condition. No chips, cracks or repairs.

Manufacturer: VeArt Italy, circa 1990.
