DESCRIPTION

Four-legged stool in varnished solid pine by Charlotte Perriand, originally designed for the Hôtel Le Doron in Méribel in 1947, and later reintroduced in the interior projects she carried out for the resort during the 1960s.

This model stands out with its slightly concave circular seat resting on four splayed, profiled legs.

A rare and emblematic example of modernized Savoyard furniture, it exemplifies Perriand's approach to design, blending craftsmanship with modernist clarity.

Provenance: Méribel, France.
