DESCRIPTION

Showcasing a charming patina that tells a tale of time, this table is a creation by the visionary Charlotte Perriand.

Emerging from the dynamic design era of the 1970s, this piece was born with a distinct purpose - to grace the interiors of the Résidence Nova and Lauzières in Les Arcs 1800. Meticulously crafted, it boasts a square top made from solid laminated pine contrasting with the cross-shaped metal base elegantly lacquered in deep black.
